Next Sermon Series

Is there life after Failure? Does God want me, can he actually use me? For the next few weeks we will examine six individuals who possessed significant flaws and sins that would seem to threaten their usefulness in God's Kingdom. Yet God use these less-than-perfect people to do incredible things.

For every mistake there's forgiveness. For every false start there's a new beginning. For every failure there's hope. Because with God IT'S NOT TOO LATE. Come and be encouraged by the redemptive grace of God!

Thanks for Coming Today!

Jesus desires you to live daily, to come together weekly to remember that the Hope of Heaven is available to you beyond one Sunday. You are invited to Hope next Sunday!

Warm Up: What do you have as Easter memories?

1. What has been a loss that has been a struggle to your heart?
2. Read John 11:1-44. Martha and Mary both deal with their grief differently. Who do you relate closer to? Explain.
3. "Jesus allows things to happen that can help people turn their heart toward heaven." What makes this truth difficult to consider? What in this story is confirming this truth?
4. How is this story encouraging to any heartache or hardship you are having?
5. How can the Resurrection be your Hope from Heaven?

I AM Hope for the Heart

[We encourage you to write what comes to you during the morning]

The Word for Your Week (NLT)

Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this, Martha?"

John 11:25-26

This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.

Hebrews 4:15-16

I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him.

Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit

Romans 15:13
